DEMON'S DIARY '61

"When it comes to praising them . . .

Deep River beats them all"

Dedicated to you . . .

Mr. Milton Wilder, Sr.

It is with truthful hearts and minds that we so proudly dedicate this, our second volume of the DEMON'S DIARY to you, MR. WILDER, who has helped us in so many nameless ways to make our school more comfortable and more enjoyable. Our sincere thanks come from the bottom of our hearts!

Bells are Ringing.

"To Each His Own"

We, the Senior Class of Deep River School, County of Lee, State of North Carolina, in the year of our Lord, one thousand and nine hundred, sixty-one, are leaving our Alma Mater.

After enjoying four years of school, work, and activities, and having attained our goal, we do hereby make, declare, and publish this, our Last Will and Testament, to the students who will follow in our ways.

ARTICLE I

To the undergraduates: We, the Senior Class of 1961, do will and bequeath our titles and privileges. May they use them in honorable and useful ways.

ARTICLE II

Upon the principal and faculty, we bestow our love and gratitude.

ARTICLE III

To the individuals:

I, FAYE ATKINS, do leave my ability to work in the office for Mr. Morrison to Doris Womble and my love for French II to Jimmy Gaines.
I, J.W. BAILES, do leave my superlative "Best All Around" to my sister, Judy.
I, JOE CARTER, do leave my ability to bet on the World Series and lose to any Yankee Fan.
I, JEAN CHRISTIAN, do leave my ability to make friends to my sister, Barbara, and Jimmy I'll keep forever.
I, JAMES COVINGTON, do leave my bus to anyone who wants it and my ability to finish school to Johnny Matthews.
I, ROY DENKINS, do leave my studious ways to anyone who needs them and my ability to get along with Mr. Morrison to Nicky LaSalvia.
I, CAROLYN GAINES, do leave my boy friend's Cadillac to Mr. Morrison and my bus to anyone who can handle it!
I, FRANCES GROSS, do leave my ability to keep the library for four years to Delores Huddleston and my ability to go with a boy from Pittsboro as wonderful as Billy, to my cousin, Martha.
I, ROBERT HUGHES, do leave my ability to leave school after fifth period to Ricky Lawton.
I, FAYE JOHNSON, do leave my blond hair and blue eyes to any girl who needs them and my ability to go steady with a certain Pittsboro boy I'll keep.
I, LARRY JOHNSON, do leave my position on the bench to Raymond Brown and my ability to take two histories to Micky Johnson.
I, MIKE JOHNSON, do leave my 6'4" height to Wayne Dowdy and my "shotgun" right arm to Micky Johnson.
I, CHARLES KELLY, do leave my love for racing to Duncan Harrington.
I, TOMMY LUCK, do leave my gentlemanly ways to Phil Bridges and my good looks I'll keep for myself.
I, CAROLYN McBRYDE, do leave my short cute figure to Charlaine Garnett.
I, MARTIN MARKS, do leave my typing speed to David McDuffie and my superlative "Friendliest" to Jerry Kelly.
I, ED RIDDLE, do leave my ability to take six subjects and my senior privileges to anyone who needs them.
I, ELIZABETH RUTHERFORD, do leave my superlative "Most Studious" to Nicky LaSalvia and my position as Librarian to my cousin, Shirley.
I, BILLY SMITH, do leave my "49 Impala" to anyone who can handle it and my after school job to Johnny Watson.
I, THEODORE THOMAS, do leave my position on the basketball team to Larry Thomas and my good looks I'll keep for myself.
I, SANDRA WILLIAMS, do leave my ability to start Mike Johnson on the road to ROMANCE to anyone who will have as much fun as I did, Ha! Ha! and my superlative "Wittiest" to Mr. Bare.
I, LESLIE WICKER, do leave my basketball position to my sister, Willa, and my freckles to anyone who wants them.

"Looking Back"

In 1949, 17 of the present 22 seniors started out together to receive their education. Mrs. June Gunter was our teacher that year. She taught us our basic fundamentals: reading, writing, and arithmetic.

Mrs. Edith West was our second grade teacher. This year we built a steamship and made puppets for passengers. I remember quite well that we all made a 100 on spelling. Mrs. West gave us all a peice of chewing gum as a reward and let us chew it all day. Jeanne Christian joined us this year.

Mrs. Jane Kennedy was our third grade teacher. This year we made stuffed puppets and gave a puppet show. This year we also had a pet frog. I remember that Jeanne Christian was very heartbroken over its death. J.W. Bailes joined us this year.

During our fourth grade our teacher, Mrs. Harward, took us to visit the Lee County Library. This year we also had a party at the swimming pool.

In the fifth grade Mrs. Harmond was our teacher. This year we went to Raleigh and had lunch at Pullan Park. We visited the Museum, the Capital, State Prison, State School for the Blind, Hall of History, and Cameron Village. Charles Kelly joined us this year.

Mrs. Cornelia Cheek Crawley was our sixth grade teacher. This year we made a class trip to Chapel Hill and visited the Planetarium. James Covington joined us this year.

In our seventh year of school Mrs. Frances Wicker was our teacher. This year we took a trip to the State Fair, Roy Denkins, Jr. joined us this year.

In the eighth grade our teacher was Mrs. Rochelle Fulton. We made a trip to the State Fair, Chapel Hill, Duke Gardens and the Duke Chapel.

As Freshmen we had finally reached high school. We continued in our education under the leadership of Mr. C.P. Farmer our class sponsor. Our class had a party at Oldham's Lake which everyone enjoyed. This year we served the Seniors and other classes refreshments at the annual Farewell Party.

Sophomores...Under the leadership of Mr. Smith we became more like adults. This year we had a class party at Aberdeen Lake and we enjoyed it very much. We were also responsible for the refreshments for the Farewell Party. We served as waiters and waitresses at the Junior-Senior.

Juniors...This was a very important year to us. We were finally reaching our goal, Graduation. Under the leadership of Mrs. Annie C. Millikin we faced many new problems. Such as the Junior Play, "Mumbo, Jumbo" and our Junior-Senior Banquet, "An Evening in the South Pacific." We enjoyed many money making projects such as suppers and sales. We were responsible for the games at the Farewell Party.

Seniors...We had finally made it—our last year in school. Under the leadership of Mrs. Annie C. Millikin we were eager to finish our last year in school. It was this year, that we were willing to do anything to make money. Our Senior trip to Washington and New York, the Junior-Senior Banquet honoring us, the Annual, along with many other parties and activities, were all experiences we will always remember.

Finally graduation...We received our diplomas and departed from our beloved school. The twelve years of school were short and as we look back we remember sad and joyful times that will remain in our hearts forever. We also remember that our education is one thing that no one can take away from us and that our education never stops.

"My Future Is In Your Hands"

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see FAYE ATKINS, who is the mother of two little Gaineses and the secretary of Gaines' Supply Company.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see JEAN CHRISTIAN, who is a secretary at the Nationwide Insurance Office and the proud mother of two little Thompson's.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see FRANCES GROSS, who owns a lovely mansion in Pittsboro and is the wife of Billy Ashe and mother of three.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see CAROLYN GAINES lounging around the Hunter's swimming pool taking swimming lessons.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see FAYE JOHNSON, who is considering giving up her career as an Army Officer, to become Mrs. Hearne.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see CAROLYN McBRYDE, who is a happily married housewife and mother of Louis Measemers' three children.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see ELIZABETH RUTHERFORD, who is a Home Economics teacher at Greenwood High School.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see SANDRA WILLIAMS, who is the Model of the Dowdy's Studio and part owner of the boss and six children.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see JOE CARTER, who is the principal at D.R.S. and ruling his students with an iron-clad hand.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see LESLIE WICKER, who is now a minister at Northview Church and is still waiting for a certain blond.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see MARTIN MARKS, who is now a Texas Millionaire and still has that strange hobby—girls!

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see LARRY JOHNSON, who is a swimming instructor at Girls' State, he seems to be enjoying himself.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see MIKE JOHNSON as a coach at Carolina, who seems to be doing better with the girls than his team.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see TOMMY LUCK, who is the owner of a Model's Agency and is driving a 1965 Chevrolet.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see J.W. BAILES, who is now a scientist and is planning to be the first man to the moon with certain Central brunette.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see ROY DENKINS, who is now a professor at State College.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see BILLY SMITH, who is the proud president of an Atomic Research Plant in Florida.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see ROBERT HUGHES, who is the president of Sanford Brick & Tile Company and owns a large country estate.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see CHARLES KELLY, who has just won the title of "Mr. America" and is competing for the "Mr. Universe" title.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see THEODORE THOMAS, who has a Trucking Company of his own and as his secretary a beautiful blond.

As the curtains of time roll back and we look into the future we see JAMES COVINGTON, who is now a Senator of North Carolina and seems to be ruling the Senate.
